CHANGES TO MATERIAL INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE

“New License Application,” June 2025, 10 pages

The “New License Application” (November 2024) form has been further modified to incorporate the changes brought about by 25 RS SB 202 and 25 RS HB 775. Namely, the “direct shipper license” authorizing direct-to-consumer shipment of alcoholic beverages was renamed the “direct shipper Type A license” and a new license, the “direct shipper Type B license” authorizing the direct shipment of cannabis-infused beverages was created. The Type B license requires the same information from the applicant regarding their manufacture or supplying of cannabis-infused beverages as the Type A license does for the applicant’s manufacture or supplying of alcoholic beverages. The form therefore renames the direct shipper license to the “direct shipper Type A license” and adds the new

Type B license, the application for which asks the same questions as for the Type A license, except about cannabis-infused beverages.
